

Journal is Commendable

The further new look given to CA journal is commendable. Congratulations for highlighting women's contribution to the profession and economy by inserting relevant articles like by CA. Sweta Prabhudesai, which show that women power is now being increasingly recognised in every field of economy. The President's messages in February and March 2007 issues were quite interesting and encouraging. As advised in the President's message, let us learn to smile and make the life beautiful.

The March 2007 issue of the Journal was interesting and knowledge-packed. While 'Mission 2007' informed us about the well thought out direction taken by the Institute, the articles published under 'Focus on Banking' were very informative. The publication of 'DO's & DON'Ts' for the members has added further value to the journal.

Source of Information & Inspiration

It is pleasure to note that the Journal is covering a range of topics and subjects of relevance these days which are not only informative but also interesting. Besides core articles related to the profession, the content published under the features like 'From the President', 'Health', 'Women in Accountancy' and quotable Quotes published on some pages have all added far more value to the journal. Truly, the Journal has become a source of information as well as inspiration especially for students.

Insurance Scheme with LIC Welcome

I appreciate and congratulate the ICAI for launching a novel scheme in association with LIC for the well being of Chartered Accountants and their families. I feel that Institute should also explore the possibility of similar types of schemes for the mediclaim policies for CAs and their family members. Such schemes are also very much desirable.

Teamwork a Must in Today's World

The article on Teamwork by CA. Roopa Venkatesh in February 2007 Issue was wonderful which emphasised the right points required for the overall personal and organisational growth. Nowadays the spirit of team is a must requirement for each and every work either in the organisation or outside. Let's work with the spirit of teamwork to excel collectively.

Corrigendum

Readers attention is drawn to the article titled 'Audit of Advance Portfolio of Banks' published on pages 1421-1425 of March 2007 issue of the Journal. On the page 1423, Drawing Limit against stock and Drawing Power has inadvertently been mentioned as Rs. 35.00 lacs and Rs. 112 lacs respectively. It should be read as Rs. 45.00 lacs and Rs. 122 lacs respectively. The error is regretted.
