Changes in Journal Are Welcome

"Change is the only constant in life" and the changes in the journal are very apparent and pleasant. It is being timely delivered and can be accessed on the ICAI website even before relevant month begins. The coverage and quality of articles have also improved manifold.

—CA. Geeta Das

Articles on Articleship Desired

I feel that the other half of CA, the articleship, is somewhat a neglected lot despite being an indispensable part of CA training. It would be better if a comprehensive write-up focusing on articleship is published in the Journal for the larger benefit of the profession.

—Ashish Singla

ICAI Identity Cards

The ID Cards issued by the ICAI to its members seem to be losing recognition as a proof of identity before many authorities and at many important places including banks. The ICAI should take up the matter with Government so that our ID cards are treated at par with PAN/Passport, etc. for the purpose of identification.

—CA. Aditya Singhal

Online Courses Needed

With reference to 'Course on Consultancy Management' as mentioned in President's Page of September 2006 issue, I would like to suggest introduction of online courses for professionals like me who work in industry. It will be extremely helpful for us in improving our skills.

—CA. Rajiv Warriar
(Trivandrum)

READERS

There have been some commendable changes in the journal but even after this I feel that not all the members read through the articles properly due to lack of time, etc. I think involvement of more and more CAs in the journal is required to change the trend. Some steps to that effect may be to start best article prize, starting more interactive features, and increasing Local chapter involvement by publishing at least one article focusing on the respective zone(s) every month.

—CA. Niyati Hemani,
(Rajkot)

The words 'CA' - Alphabets of Trust as appearing on the Cover of the journal are motivating and inspiring. Such expressions help us remember our duties and responsibilities as CAs and help us become partners in Nation building.

(New Delhi)

Health Section Very Useful

The article on Anger Management dealt with not only problems but also solutions. In fact inculcation of moral values is must for practical adoption of academic values.

—Tulsi Ram Tibrewala

The article on 'Coping with anger at the work place' was immensely useful. It gave practical tips to deal with difficult circumstances at work place and to maintain a healthy and productive working environment.

—Santosh Kumar Rout
(CA Student, Kolkata)
